

Picture this Project

My class and I are very thankful for this vision grant. We have been able to use the dry erase boards with every subject from Reading to Writing! They have been able to work collaborating in creating words using suffixes or making words using Greek or Latin Root words and then being able to move around the room and define the word. They are also able to work out a math problem on dry erase and being able to collaborate with their classmates.

Brooke Smith

Douglas Elementary School